Fan King never gave his followers the least bit of uneasiness, winning as he pleased after making all the running.

The fact that London prices game lower (Louisville & Nashville was down 1 3-8) apparently made no difference to the bulls. They gave their specialties effective support, and not only the industrial groups, but some of the dividend paying railway shares scored smart advances.

Distillers was a prominent feature, fising to 30. There were buying orders from the West, accompanied by rumers of another advance of 5 cents in the price of distilled spirits.

The short interest had not a little to do with the more cheerful feeling. A reduction in the posted rates of sterling exchange, to 481-12 and 485-12, also believed to foreshadow another impert movement of gold if the Sherman Silver law is repealed.
